When Qigong is properly practiced it is extremely beneficial and presents minimal risk to one's health. Please consult your physician if you are in doubt of your capabilities or response to Qigong. While Meggan is happy to discuss your individual responses to this form, if you have concerns or questions, she is not liable for harm that may result from the study and practice of qigong. It is your responsibility to pay attention to your own body, its limitations and needs.

Please note you will need a decent internet connection and zoom downloaded on your computer or tablet prior to our first class. I do not recommend using a phone.

By signing below, I attest that I have read and understand the above statement. I release Meggan Baumgartner from any liability if I am to injure myself while participating in class or on my own:
